

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Lt. Tim McMillan (Ret.)
Garden City Police Department, Georgia
Garden City, GA

Tim McMillan began his law enforcement career in 2003 with the Garden City Police Department in Georgia following the tragic deaths of two close friends.

Over the course of his career, McMillan served as an investigator, crime scene technician, K9-handler, and sergeant. He is a Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) certified law enforcement instructor and has taught courses for law enforcement on subjects including implicit bias, perceptual awareness, and cognitive psychology.

McMillan has devoted himself to improving police relations with minority communities, racial equality, and civil rights issues. He appears in the 2017 documentary Walking While Black: L.O.V.E. Is the Answer. He is also the founder and director of the The Four Trees Project, a nonprofit that focuses on police research, training, and reform.

McMillan retired from policing in 2018. He holds a B.A. in Mathematics and a M.A. in Psychology. He is a graduate of Columbus State University's Professional Management Program. He was named 2006-2007 Police Officer of the Year for the Garden City Police Department and 2012 Police Officer of the year for the Tybee Island Police Department. He is a seven time Chief of Police Accommodation recipient, and his police reform activism has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Justice. He serves on the Board of Directors for the national nonprofit Races for Peace and resides in Garden City, Georgia.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
