LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Patrick Nightingale

Former Prosecutor
Allegheny County
Pittsburgh, PA

Patrick Nightingale is a former prosecutor and practicing criminal defense attorney in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He spent six years with the Allegheny County District Attorney's Office and was one of the founding members of the Domestic Violence Unit.

As both a prosecutor and criminal defense attorney, Patrick has seen the devastating effects of mandatory minimum sentencing schemes from both sides. Patrick has seen the violent criminal enterprises that have taken hold in Pittsburgh and elsewhere in order to claim their share of the enormous illicit profits enabled by drug prohibition.

Patrick has extensive public speaking experience, both from training police officers in matters of evidence collection while a prosecutor - and from speaking out in support of reforming marijuana laws as the Executive Director of Pittsburgh NORML. Patrick is a founding partner of Cannabis Legal Solutions, a law firm dedicated to the needs of PA's medical marijuana industry. He has been a guest on KDKA Radio, KDKA Television, The DVE Morning Show, WRCT Radio, WKQV Radio and is quoted often in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and Pittsburgh Tribune Review.

Patrick's law practice includes both state and federal courts, at the trial and appellate levels, and involves everything from simple drug possession to federal RICO prosecution.

Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice reforms that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year though educational programs and media interviews.
