

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Tom Parker Assistant Special Agent in Charge (Ret.) Los Angeles FBI Field Bureau Santa Barbara, CA

Tom Parker served with the FBI for 24 years, rising to Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Los Angeles FBI Field Office. At the FBI, Parker established the FBI's largest field drug enforcement program in Los Angeles, led the FBI's investigation of the 1990 Rodney King beating at the hands of the LAPD officers, and ran an investigation of Las Vegas casinos that led to the conviction and imprisonment of the entire Mafia leadership in Las Vegas.

At the FBI, Parker also spent three years at FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C. as a program manager in the Office of Congressional and Public Affairs, where he also headed the Crime Resistance Program.

After retiring from the FBI, Parker founded his own private security firm specializing in forensic and behavioral science. For two years, Parker also served on the Santa Barbara Fire and Police Commission.

Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice reforms that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
