

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Allison Watson
Assistant District Attorney (Fmr.)
13th Judicial District of Tennessee
Knoxville, TN

Allison Watson is a former Assistant District Attorney for the 13th Judicial District of Tennessee and has over 12 years of legal experience in both government and the private sector. She's served on various non-profit boards and inter-disciplinary teams advocating for children, human rights, and criminal justice reform. As a trustee for the Tomorrow Scholarship Fund and public speaker at high schools, she focused her efforts on advancing educational opportunities for teens struggling with issues such as unplanned pregnancy, homelessness, delinquency, and neglect.

Watson was a founding board member of House of Hope, a local non-profit organization that offers services to children and families displaced due to the manufacture of methamphetamine. She is also a founding board member of Tennessee Research Institute, an independent non-profit organization, which promotes education regarding important public policy issues in Tennessee.

Watson holds a B.S. in Business Administration from Tennessee Technological University and graduated cum laude with a J.D. from the University of Tennessee College of Law.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition