

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Deputy Sheriff Dwayne Sessom (Fmr.) Comanche County, Oklahoma Lawton, OK

When he was 23 years old, Dwayne Sessom was hired as a Corrections Officer for the Comanche County jail in Lawton, Oklahoma. He later took the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) course and became a reserve Deputy Sheriff.

Sessom decided to take action against the drug war after his son was cited for simple possession of a small amount of marijuana. He watched as the charge cost his 19-year-old son over $1,000 in legal fees and resulted in a mandatory six-month revocation of his driver's license.

Sessom has worked as a federal contractor and held a top secret security clearance. He is now a federal employee at the Department of Defense.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
