

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Det. Kenneth Williams (Ret.)
Brockton Police Department, Massachusetts
Brockton, MA

Ken Williams is a former Boston-area homicide detective. Today, he is one of the leading experts on police reform and police use-of-force in the country. He is retained by civil rights attorneys to evaluate and render unbiased opinions in officer-involved shootings and other civil/criminal matters. He has been featured as a public speaker at law schools and community forums across the U.S.

Williams has appeared as a subject matter expert in print and television media. He appeared on N.B.C.'s Black and Blue with Tony Harris; appeared on C.N.N./H.L.N. as an expert contributor to the Nancy Grace Show; performed a riveting TEDx Talk entitled Follow-up to Ferguson: Detective's False Claims Act Lawsuit could reform police policy in America; and was the Use of Force expert at the 13th annual San Francisco Public Defender's Justice Summit. He once held a private training for more than 60 attorneys at the San Francisco Public Defender's Office concerning expert witness case review analysis. He also provided an unbiased case review of the physical evidence in the Michael Brown case.

Williams is an Armed Services veteran and holds a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Western New England College.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
