

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Special Agent Ray Strack (Ret.)

Dept. of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement
Fort Lauderdale, FL

Raymond Strack retired in January 2010 from the Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, as a Supervisory Criminal Investigator/ Supervisory Special Agent. Strack began his federal law enforcement career as a Customs Patrol Officer in 1983 in New York City and spent a majority of his early career as a Customs Special Agent at J.F.K. Airport.

From 1992 until retirement, Strack served in numerous managerial and supervisory positions for both the U.S. Customs Service and then the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement following the inception of the Department of Homeland Security in 2003. As Assistant Attaché for D.H.S. in the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo, Strack was a direct liaison to the Japanese government during the negotiations and implementation of numerous bilateral programs and initiatives.

As a Supervisory Special Agent, Strack acted as the National Marine Coordinator for the Office of the Special Agent In Charge, Miami, where he was the direct supervisor for the U.S. Customs Service Marine Group in Fort Lauderdale.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition