

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Deputy Sheriff Carlis McDerment (Fmr.)
Fairfield County Sheriff's Office, Ohio
Blacklick, OH

Carlis McDerment served for ten years as a Deputy Sheriff in the Fairfield County Sheriff's Office in Ohio. He worked in the Jail Division for four years and the Patrol Division for seven years, where he became familiar with the challenges of both police work and incarceration.

Working in the Patrol Division, he was assigned to a drug interdiction unit. The unit pursued drug users who stole to fund their drug habits, turned those individuals into informants against their dealers, and built cases against the dealers.

In 2016, McDerment became a lieutenant with the Chesapeake Police Department. He worked on undercover assignments as a detective and helped train new recruits as a field training officer.

McDerment left policing in 2017. He lives in Blacklick, Ohio.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
