

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Sergeant Tulio Tourinho
Louisville Police Department, Kentucky
Louisville, KY

Tulio Tourinho began his law enforcement career in 2006 as an officer with the Louisville Police Department in Kentucky. He initially served as a patrol officer in a high-crime neighborhood and later joined the Impact Unit as a detective. He subsequently worked with the Violent Crimes Task Force before becoming the Sergeant in Charge of a diverse area in Louisville known as the Highlands. He is currently a commanding officer and sergeant.

Tourinho formerly taught high school Spanish and social studies in Winchester, Kentucky. Shortly after September 11th, 2001, he enlisted in the U.S. military and served with the 82nd Airborne Rangers as an airborne infantry paratrooper in Afghanistan and Iraq. He is a second-degree black belt in Shotokan Karate and teaches free self defense classes catered towards victims of sexual assault on college campuses. He received the Crisis Intervention Team Officer of the Year Award and the Distinguished Lifesaving Award from the Louisville Metropolitan Police Department. He holds a B.A. in political science from Moorhead State University and a M.A. in divinity from the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition