ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Judge Ronald Reinstein (Ret.) Superior Court of Arizona Maricopa County, AZ

Judge Ronald Reinstein began his legal career in 1974 as a Deputy Maricopa County Attorney. In 1985, he was appointed to the bench of the Arizona Superior Court. In 1990, he became the Presiding Criminal Judge and was responsible for overseeing multiple specialized courts including the Initial Appearance Court, Early Disposition Court, Drug Court, D.U.I. Court, Veterans Court, and the Comprehensive Mental Health Court. In 1998, he became an Associate Presiding Judge and served in the position for two years.

In 2000, Judge Reinstein retired from the Arizona Superior Court. He currently works as a judicial consultant for the Supreme Court of Arizona and was appointed by the Chief Justice to serve as the Director of the Center for Evidence Based Sentencing. He is the Chair of both the Supreme Court Capital Case Oversight Committee of the Commission on Victims in the Courts and the Arizona Forensic Science Advisory Committee. He was appointed to the Interagency Working Group of the White House Subcommittee on Forensic Science and served as the Vice Chair of the Legal Resources Committee for the Organization of Scientific Area Committees. He is a faculty member of the National Judicial Education Program for Adult Victim Sexual Assault Cases and serves a board member for Justice System Partners and the Justice Management Institute. He has been inducted into the Maricopa County Hall of Fame and was honored by the U.S. Office for Victims of Crimes. He holds a B.A. and J.D. from Indiana University.
