

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Detective Debbie Ramsey (Ret.)
Baltimore Police Department, Maryland
Baltimore, MD

Detective Debbie Ramsey (Ret.) began her law enforcement career in 1982 with the Baltimore Police Department in Maryland, where she served for 12 years. She rose through the ranks and became a community policing officer, patrol officer, and detective. As a detective, she worked with the Criminal Investigation Division Drug-Enforcement Section and the Internal Investigation Division. She served on several federal task forces alongside the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Maryland State Police, Drug Enforcement Agency, and the U.S. Marshalls Service.

Upon leaving policing, she co-hosted a show on Radio One/W.O.L.B. Baltimore and was a member of the Baltimore City Speakers Bureau. She is the founder and executive director of the Unified Efforts, Inc. “Out of School Time” violence prevention program, which provides in-school activities and programs to children at no cost to their parents. She is the recipient of the City of Baltimore Mayor’s Citation for Splendid Community Service and is an Open Society Institute Fellow. She attended Morgan State University and is a graduate of both the Maryland State Training Commission and the Baltimore Police Department Academy.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition