

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Sheri Ray
Indiana Department of Corrections
Jeffersonville, IN

Officer Sheri Ray (Fmr.) began her law enforcement career in 2000 with the North Carolina Department of Corrections in Raleigh. She supervised the Maximum Security Unit and served as a field training officer, the Lead Investigator of Security Threat Groups, and the Negotiations Lead for the Prison Emergency Response Team. In 2017, she transferred to the Clark County Sheriff's Office in Indiana and served as a correctional officer for two years.

Officer Ray left the Sheriff's Office in 2019 and is currently an officer with the Corrections Department of Indiana. She is the only correctional officer to ever go undercover at a facility as an inmate and later return to work as an officer at the same location. Her story was profiled in the A & E program, 60 days, and she subsequently anchored her own spin-off show called Inmate to Officer. She holds a B.A. in business, management, and marketing from Portland State University.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition