

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Gnatee Doe
Daytona Beach Police Department
Daytona, FL

Gnatee Doe began his law enforcement career in 2009 as an officer with the Daytona Beach Police Department in Florida. He served as a S.W.A.T. operator for seven years and his duties included responding to hostage situations and training officers in subjects such as hostage incident resolution, dignitary protection, firearms, and search warrants. He briefly worked undercover as a narcotics officer before transitioning to a training officer, where he oversaw the instruction of more than 200 officers in defensive tactics, patrol procedures, and de-escalation techniques. He subsequently served as a field training officer, where he specialized in teaching community-relations, investigation procedures, and stress management to new recruits.

Doe currently serves as a school resource officer at Campbell Middle School, where he is responsible for security and mentoring students. He is an adjunct professor at Daytona College and teaches emergency services courses to E.M.T. students. He holds a B.S. in criminal justice from Bethune Cookman University and a M.F.A. in English and creative writing from Southern New Hampshire University.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
