

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Patrol Officer Jason Jakubowski (Fmr.)
Big Rapids Police Department
Big Rapids, MI

Officer Jason Jakubowski (Fmr.) began his law enforcement career in 2000 as a patrol officer with the Big Rapids Police Department in Michigan. He worked as an undercover detective on the Drug Task Force Team across four counties in the Big Rapids area and served on the Dive, Rescue, and Recovery team. He served as a neighborhood police officer and patrolled lower-income areas where he organized a neighborhood watch program and helped develop stronger relationships with the community. He provides training on civilian response to active shooter incidents and has created presentations for prevention and response to suicide bombing attacks in educational, public, and corporate settings.

Jakubowski currently serves as a reserve officer. Since 2016, he's taught criminal justice and Michigan criminal law courses to high school juniors and seniors at Montcalm Area Career Center in Sidney, Michigan. He holds a B.A. in sociology from Michigan State University.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
