

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

District Attorney Natasha Irving Sixth Prosecutorial District of Maine Waldoboro, ME

Natasha Irving began her legal career in 2014 as a defense attorney in Waldoboro, Maine. In 2018, she became the first woman to be elected District Attorney of Maine's Sixth Prosecutorial District, which serves the Sagadahoc, Knox, Lincoln, and Waldo counties. Her tenure thus far has focused on leaning into restorative justice principles and providing alternative pathways beyond incarceration for people convicted of crimes.

Irving previously served with Americorps. She holds a BA in philosophy from Loyola University and a JD from the University of Maine School of Law.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
