

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Brian Leininger
Assistant District Attorney (Fmr.)
29th Judicial District of Kansas
Johnson County, KS

Brian Leininger began his career as a municipal prosecutor in the city of Prairie Village, Kansas. He later became an Assistant District Attorney in Wyandotte County, Kansas where he prosecuted a wide range of crimes including robbery, rape, and murder.

Leininger then became General Legal Counsel to the Kansas Highway Patrol and trained officers on the legality of use of force, participated in investigations into officer involved shootings, and had first hand experience with civil asset forfeiture laws. During his time with the Kansas Highway patrol, he was a Special Assistant Attorney General for the state of Kansas and was part of a task force that helped review DUI laws. After five years, he became an assistant district attorney for Johnson County, Kansas.

Leininger has received legal training at the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia. He is currently active throughout the state of Kansas and manages his private practice in Johnson County, where he focuses on DUI and drug cases.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
