

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Sgt. Paul Steigleder (Ret.)
Clackamas County Sheriff's Office, Oregon
Portland, OR

Sergeant Paul Steigleder's law enforcement career spanned three decades, including two years as a police officer in Sitka, Alaska, and 28 years at the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office in Oregon, holding the rank of sergeant and lieutenant. He worked on anti-drug education programs in schools and oversaw hundreds of drug-related search warrants and small-time drug arrests. Steigleder was a certified Drug Recognition Expert for 10 years.

Steigleder is a graduate of the F.B.I. National Academy and completed 2,900 training hours over the course of his career. He earned a B.S. in Sociology at the University of Portland. Today, he manages a private security firm.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
