

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Lt. Colonel Arthur Rizer (Ret.)
US Military Police Corps
Special Assistant US Attorney (Fmr.)
District of Southern California
Cheney, WA

Arthur Rizer is the Vice President for the Program on Technology, Criminal Justice and Civil Liberties at Lincoln Network. In addition to his work at Lincoln, Arthur is a visiting lecturer at University College London, and an adjunct professor at George Mason University's Antonin Scalia Law School. Arthur is also a member of Columbia University Justice Lab's Executive Session for the Future of Justice Policy, the Federalist Society's Executive Committee of the Criminal Law Practice Group, the Virginia Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, and other advisory bodies.

Before joining Lincoln, Arthur was founding director of the R Street Institute's program on criminal justice and civil liberties. Prior to that, Arthur taught at West Virginia University's College of Law, and was a visiting professor at Georgetown University Law Center. He also served as a trial attorney with the U.S. Justice Department, primarily as a federal prosecutor in the Criminal Division. He also served as a prosecutor in the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of California and in the civil division. Earlier in his career, Arthur served in the U.S. Army, originally enlisting as a private before later receiving a commission. He retired as a lieutenant colonel from the U.S. Army (WVNG). During his Army career, Arthur received the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Meritorious Service and Iraq Campaign medals.

Arthur earned his BS in political science from Pacific Lutheran University; a ML from Georgetown University's Law Center; and his JD from Gonzaga University School of Law. He is also a graduate of the US Marine Corps' Command Staff College. He is in the final stages of a doctorate at the University of Oxford, Faculty of Law, Centre of Criminology that focuses on policing.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interview.
