LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Jillian Snider (Ret.)
New York Police Department
Monroe, NY

Jillian Snider began her career as a patrol officer with the New York Police Department in 2006. Throughout her career, Officer Snider served in various units including street narcotics enforcement, anti-crime, field intelligence, vice operations, and special operations. She is a highly decorated officer, receiving several awards for her service, including the NYPD Police Commissioner's Roosevelt Award.

In her time in the Special Operations unit, Officer Snider trained police officers and drafted all precinct tactical plans. In addition, she compiled and analyzed all Special Operations data for CompStat, DomStat (Domestic Violence), ChocStat (Narcotics), and GunStat. Officer Snider also served as a primary liaison for external grants from non-profit organizations geared towards curtailing youth drinking and preventing substance use. After serving for 14 years, Officer Jillian Snider retired from the New York Police Department in 2020.

Officer Snider received a B.S. in Legal Studies from John Jay College of Criminal Justice. In 2014, she received a Master of Public Administration from Marist College. Soon after, she received a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice from John Jay College of Criminal Justice. Currently, Officer Snider is an adjunct lecturer at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and the Director of Criminal Justice and Civil Liberties Policy at the R Street Institute.
