

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Chief Peter Paulding (Ret.)

Chief of Police

Gulf Breeze, FL

Chief Paulding began his career in law enforcement in 1972 in Plymouth, MA. He later became the Chief of Police for Grafton, MA in 1998 before continuing his career in Florida, where he joined the Gulf Breeze Police Department as their Chief in 2001.

Chief Paulding has a bachelor's degree from Bridgewater State College and a Master's of Justice in criminology from Northeastern University. In addition to his career in law enforcement, he teaches at the University of North Florida, and guest lectures elsewhere, on the topic of management for current and future law enforcement management personnel.

Chief Paulding has several years of experience in disaster management and was the Program Chair and Coordinator for the Florida Statewide Disaster Task Force from 2006-2010. Chief Paulding is also passionate about traffic safety and works as a national consultant for cities looking to implement new technologies to make traffic conditions safer.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
