

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Judge Arthur L. Hunter, Jr. (Fmr.)
Orleans Parish Criminal District Court
New Orleans, Louisiana

Judge Arthur Hunter began his law enforcement career in 1981 as a police officer with the New Orleans Police Department. He worked on patrol in the Urban Squad, serving the New Orleans public housing community. In 1985, Judge Hunter left policing and began practicing law as a private attorney, handling police brutality cases and representing police officers on personal matters.

In November of 1996, Judge Hunter was elected to the Orleans Parish Criminal District Court in New Orleans, Louisiana. He served as a Presiding Judge of the Orleans Re-Entry Court, Veterans Treatment Court, and Mental Health Court. Judge Hunter retired in February of 2020 after 23 years as an Orleans Parish criminal court judge. He is the recipient of the National Bar Association Judicial Council Sara J. Harper Humanitarian Award, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections Secretary's Award, and the Louisiana State Reentry Service Award.

He is a visiting faculty member of Harvard Law School Trial Advocacy Workshop. Judge Hunter is a Founder/Advisor of the Young Artists Movement and Founder/Director of the Allen Ray Bolin Trial Advocacy Workshop. He earned a Bachelor's Degree and Juris Doctor from Loyola University.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
