

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Sheriff Jason Trundy Waldo County Sheriff's Office Belfast, ME

Sheriff Jason Trundy began his law enforcement career in 1994 as a correctional officer with the Waldo County Correctional Center in Maine. In 1997, he became a Deputy Sheriff within the patrol division of the Sheriff's Office. After three years, he went on to become a criminal investigator where he was responsible for investigating sex crimes, drug related offenses, and property crimes. In 2006, he was assigned as a resident agent with the Maine Drug Enforcement Agency. In 2007, he was promoted to Captain and Correctional Administrator of the Waldo

County Correctional Center where he was in charge of a statewide system, including the Maine Coastal Regional Reentry Center. In 2009, he became Patrol Lieutenant within the Sheriff's Office and was responsible for the supervision and day-to-day operations of patrol and criminal investigations. In 2015, he was elevated to the position of Chief Deputy. He oversaw the operations of the Correctional, Patrol, Criminal Investigations, and Civil Process Divisions of the Sheriff's Office. In 2023, he was elected to his current position as Sheriff.

Trundy is a member of the Maine Sheriff's Association, FBI National Academy Association, Belfast Rotary Club, Waldo County Recovery Committee, Community Addiction and Mental Health Solutions, and is the Board President of the Maine Youth Alliance.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety.
