

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Chief Bryan Zeringue
Thibodaux Police Department
Thibodaux, LA

Chief Bryan Zeringue is the current police chief of Thibodaux, Louisiana. In 1980, he began his law enforcement career with this department. In 1986, he transitioned to the Louisiana State Police and would go on to serve a total of 21 years as a sergeant and public information officer.

In 2011, Zeringue left the Louisiana State Police and went on to work for Louisiana Licensing Board for Contractors. In 2015, he was unanimously confirmed by the Thibodaux City Council as Chief of Police. Under his leadership, the department has focused on juvenile justice and community policing programs to build better relationships with residents and better serve their needs.

In addition to his role as police chief, Zeringue is Chief of the Bayou Boeuf Volunteer Fire Department, Vice Chairman of the South Central Regional Safety Coalition, and a member of the Louisiana Association of Chiefs of Police. He is an avid drummer and resides in Thibodaux.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
