

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Sgt. Carl Tennenbaum (Ret.) San Francisco Police Department, California Sebastopol, CA

Carl Tennenbaum was born and raised in San Francisco, California. He came of age in the late 1960s during the Summer of Love. Tennenbaum attended the University of San Francisco's Public Administration program. He subsequently attended San Francisco Law School where he focused on Constitutional Law.

Carl joined the San Francisco Police Department in 1981, which was the fulfillment of a lifelong dream. Over 32 years, Tennenbaum served in a number of positions within the department including field training officer, public school liaison, and hostage negotiator. He worked on teams and divisions such as Undercover Narcotics, the Robbery Abatement Team, and Evidence Control. Having the "gift of gab," Carl's favorite assignment was walking neighborhood footbeats where he had the opportunity to interact with the residents, merchants, and visitors of his favorite city.

In 1996, Carl was promoted to the rank of sergeant where he was assigned as the commander of the San Francisco Housing Authority Community Policing Team. This seven person team had responsibility for oversight of all aspects of life within thousands of public housing property units located throughout San Francisco.

It was during his three year tenure in the Narcotics Unit in the midst of the 1980s crack epidemic that Carl saw the futility of drug prohibition and narcotics enforcement. It was a turning point for Carl and his outlook on drug laws.

Carl retired from policing in 2013, leaving San Francisco and relocating to Sonoma County with his wife Angela and their menagerie of dogs and cats. He is an avid crossword addict and a lunatic baseball fan who lives and dies with his beloved Giants. Carl's daughter is a Deputy City Attorney in Petaluma, California, and his son followed in his footsteps, becoming a proud member of the San Francisco Police Department.
