

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Special Agent David Long (Fmr.)
U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Inspector General
San Diego, CA

David M. Long served for nearly nine years as a special agent with the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of the Inspector General, Division of Labor Racketeering. He worked union corruption and related organized crime cases in Florida and later transferred to Los Angeles where he began investigating identity theft cases tied to the Mexican Mafia. He also sat on a joint task force investigating Asian organized crime and human trafficking.

Long holds a B.A., magna cum laude, from Howard University. He also was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He is a member of the State Bar of Georgia. Upon graduating from law school, he served as law clerk to Judge Clifford Scott Green of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Philadelphia.

Long currently teaches a variety of criminal justice and legal studies courses at Brandman University, part of the Chapman University system, where he is the program director for both the criminal justice and legal studies programs.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..

For event bookings, contact Speakers@LawEnforcementAction.org

For media, contact Media@LawEnforcementAction.org

www.LawEnforcementActionPartnership.org

Formerly known as Law Enforcement Against Prohibition