

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Detective Jacob Tilton
Memphis Police Department
Memphis, TN

Detective Jacob Tilton began his career in 2013 as a patrol officer with the Memphis Police Department in Tennessee. In 2019, Jacob Tilton was awarded the Lifesaving Medal for saving a man who had a gunshot wound. In the same year, Tilton took up his current position as a detective in the Economic Crimes Bureau. In this role, he interviews victims of crime and investigates what happened to prevent future crime. Detective Tilton also teaches residents about current economic scams and how to best protect themselves.

He is certified in mental health first aid through the Crisis Intervention Training (CIT), fingerprinting, and active shooter scenarios. He also holds a BA in criminology and criminal justice from the University of Memphis.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
