

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Chief Joe Grecol
Notre Dame Police Department, Ohio
South Euclid, OH

Joe Grecol began his law enforcement career in 1993 as an officer with Berea Police Department in Ohio. He served in positions including sergeant for eight years and SWAT Team Crisis Negotiator for 18 years.

In 2014, Grecol was appointed Police Chief. He has since dedicated himself to implementing programs in Cuyahoga County to help those suffering from addiction to opioids with detox and rehabilitation. Under his leadership, he made it a priority for Berea officers to engage with residents in an effort to strengthen relationships between the department and the community.

In 2019, Grecol left the Berea Police Department to become Chief of the Notre Dame Police Department. He has been a certified Ohio Peace Officer for more than 25 years. He holds a B.S. in Psychology from Cleveland State University and resides in Strongsville, with his wife and nine children.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
