

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Johnn Osborn
Chief Deputy District Attorney (Fmr.)
First Judicial District Attorney's Office
Santa Fe, NM

Johnn Osborn began his legal career in 2010 as an assistant district attorney for the Second Judicial District of New Mexico. Over four years, he prosecuted misdemeanor, non-violent, and violent crimes within the Metropolitan, Community Crimes, and Violent Crimes divisions respectively. In 2014, he left the District Attorney's office and worked in private practice for two years.

From 2017 to 2021, Osborn served as the Chief Deputy District Attorney for the First Judicial District of New Mexico. He is a strong supporter of reducing the number of Americans incarcerated for drug crimes and is the Co-Founder and Vice President of Drug War Stories, a platform that gives voice to victims of the War on Drugs. He holds a B.A. in history from Texas State University, a J.D. from the University of New Mexico School of Law, and is a member of the New Mexico State Bar Historical Committee.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
