

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Joseph S. Surman
Assistant Prosecutor (Fmr.)
Middlesex County, NJ

Joseph Surman began his legal career in 2007 as a judicial clerk with the Middlesex Vicinage Court in New Jersey. In 2008, he became an assistant prosecutor with the Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office. He worked as a special legal advisor for the Middlesex County Special Operations Response Team and provided on-scene legal assistance during high-risk Special Weapons and Tactics (S.W.A.T.) operations. He also worked within the Special Victims Unit, where he was assigned cases involving sexual offenses and child abuse.

In 2016, Surman left the Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office and transitioned to private practice. He is a member of the New Jersey State Bar, Pennsylvania State Bar, and Middlesex County Bar Association. He holds a B.S. in criminal justice and a J.D. from Rutgers University and Rutgers University School of Law respectively.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
