

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Judge Judith Matarazzo
Multnomah County Circuit Court
Multnomah County, OR

Judge Judith Matarazzo began her legal career in 1985 and worked in private practice where she specialized in personal injury law for 21 years. In 2006, she was elected to the Multnomah County Circuit Court and later re-elected in 2018.

Prior to being elected, Judge Matarazzo served on the Oregon State Commission on Children & Families, both the Disciplinary Board and Practice and Procedure Committee for the Oregon State Bar, the Board of Directors for the Oregon Law Institute at Lewis & Clark Law School, and the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association. She holds a B.A. in history and political science from Hamline University and a J.D. from Willamette University School of Law. She is active in her local community and volunteers with the Triangle Lake Camp & Conference Center, Trinity Episcopal Church, and Salvation Army.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
