

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Kurt Altman
Assistant U. S. Attorney (Fmr.)
District of Arizona
Phoenix, Arizona

Kurt Altman worked for the Maricopa County Attorney's Office for close to 6 years where he was responsible for prosecuting hundreds of criminal cases ranging from homicide and capital cases to complex white collar matters. In 2001, he became the Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Arizona.

As a federal prosecutor, Altman handled everything from investigation to appeals within the Drug Task Force, Organized Crime, and Violent Crime sections. He earned the Director's Award, the highest honor bestowed upon Department of Justice lawyers, and has received the Federal Bureau of Investigation Director's Award twice for assisting F.B.I.-lead investigations.

Altman left the Department of Justice in 2008 and has since worked in private practice. He holds a J.D. from Wake Forest University School of Law and resides in the Phoenix, Arizona area.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
