

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Kyle Kazan (Ret.)
Torrance Police Department, California
Los Angeles, CA

Kyle Kazan is a retired police officer of the Torrance Police Department in Los Angeles County, California. During his service, Kazan gained recognition as an expert in gang and drug identification and eradication.

Kazan received training at gang schools including the highly touted Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Gang School. He served on the Gang Enforcement Team at the Torrance Police Department and worked in collaborative operations with the Los Angeles Police Department's anti-gang units and Los Angeles Sheriff's Operation Safe Streets unit. He's also a court-certified expert in drug usage and sales.

Today, Kazan is Co-Founder, Chairman, and Chief Executive Officer of Glass House Group, a cannabis company in California. He is also Co-Founder and Managing Member of Beach Front Properties LLC, as well as Founder and Chairman of Beach Front Property Management. He frequently presents on panels in the real estate and cannabis industries, respectively, and is quoted often by the media. Kazan is a graduate of the University of Southern California, where he played on the varsity basketball team.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
