

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Regina Hufnagel (Fmr.)
Federal Bureau of Prisons
Boston, MA

Regina Hufnagel joined the Army Military Police Corps as a reservist in 1996 when she was a senior in high school. She was assigned to the 94th Military Police Co., currently out of Londonderry, New Hampshire.

She deployed with the 94th to Bosnia in 2000. After being honorably discharged in 2004, she became a correctional officer with the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

She left corrections work in 2010 after becoming frustrated that the system wasn't helping or rehabilitating people as it should be.

Hufnagel earned an A.A. in Criminal Justice from Middlesex Community College. She was active in marijuana legalization efforts in Massachusetts by educating the public about the failures of prohibition.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
