Tim Heaphy
U.S. Attorney (Fmr.)
Western District of Virginia
Charlottesville, VA

Tim Heaphy served as a U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Virginia from 2009 to 2015. He was responsible for prosecuting federal crime in areas such as national security, financial and health care fraud, international and national organized crime, public corruption, and money laundering. Among many notable cases, Heaphy's office negotiated a record $1.5 billion settlement with Abbott Laboratories, which pleaded guilty to pharmaceutical fraud for promoting an unapproved anti-seizure drug.

Heaphy was one of 15 U.S. Attorneys chosen by the U.S. Attorney General to provide advice on emerging policy issues as part of the Attorney General's Advisory Committee. From 1994 to 2006, he served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney, first in Washington, D.C., and then in the Western District of Virginia. In 2015, Heaphy was appointed by Governor McAuliffe to be a member of the Governor's Commission on Parole Review.

In 2016, Heaphy founded The Fountain Fund, a nonprofit organization that identifies formerly incarcerated people with viable job opportunities and provides them with low-interest loans to repay court-imposed debt, purchase work uniforms, or start a small business. Today, Heaphy is a private sector attorney, chairing his firm's practice in white collar criminal cases and internal investigations.
