

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Officer Wes E. Johnson (Fmr.) Tulsa, Oklahoma

Wes E. Johnson is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, a former police officer, and a trial attorney. He served four years in the Air Force, before becoming a police officer in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He later transferred to a police department in Delaware. As an officer, some of Johnson's duties included going undercover and working with confidential informants. After leaving police work, he earned a law degree and became a trial attorney in 1977.

As a trial lawyer, he has tried federal and state drug cases, as well as civil rights, product liability, malpractice, and first-degree murder cases.

In 1980, Johnson joined the American Academy of Forensic Science and is an expert on crime scene issues.

Johnson has been practicing law for 40 years and currently resides in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 150 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews..
