

LAW ENFORCEMENT ACTION PARTNERSHIP

ADVANCING JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY SOLUTIONS

Matt Simon
Director of Public and Government Relations
GraniteLeaf Cannabis
Nashua, NH
Board Member

Matt Simon is the Director of Public and Government Relations at GraniteLeaf Cannabis, a New Hampshire non-profit medical cannabis business. He previously spent ten years (2011-2021) working for the Marijuana Policy Project, where he advocated for cannabis policy reforms in more than a dozen state legislatures. In that role, Matt co-directed the successful campaign to legalize and regulate adult-use cannabis in Vermont. He also led the effort to pass medical cannabis and decriminalization laws in New Hampshire, and he contributed to successful reform efforts in Connecticut, Massachusetts, and West Virginia.

Prior to his work as a reform advocate, Matt worked for seven years as a college English instructor in West Virginia and Kentucky with a specialization in composition and rhetoric. Matt holds a M.A. in English from West Virginia University and a B.A. in English and Philosophy from Mississippi State University.

The Law Enforcement Action Partnership is a nonprofit organization composed of police, prosecutors, judges, and other criminal justice professionals who use their expertise to advance drug policy and criminal justice solutions that improve public safety. With 200 speakers across the United States, LEAP representatives reach millions of Americans each year through educational programs and media interviews.
